

- I feel the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's present Telephone Privacy law protections.
- Indiana's present Telephone Privacy law has eliminated the annoyance and intrusion of unsolicited telephone calls in my home.
- The Indiana law has been effective in nearly totally eliminating the 3-4 calls we used to receive EVERY evening. We now receive none.
- When we have an effective law in place at the state level, we would look very unkindly at binding federal regulations that would lessen the effectiveness of those already intact state laws.
